

PRIVACY DISCLOSURE

It is the policy of Benchmark Federal Credit Union not to disclose your non-public personal information to non-affiliated parties, except as permitted by law. This policy applies even if you cease to be a member.

Categories of Information That We Collect

We collect non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as: your name, address, social security number, assets, and income.
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others, such as: your account balance, payment history, parties to transactions, and credit card usage.
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency, such as: your creditworthiness and credit history.

Categories of Information That We Disclose & Parties to Whom We Disclose

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our members or former members to anyone, except as permitted by law.

Categories of Parties to Whom We Disclose

We may disclose all the information we collect, as described above to service providers (such as check printing companies) and companies that perform marketing services on our behalf (such as securities broker dealers, insurance companies, or agents).

Confidentiality and Security

We restrict access to non-public personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your non-public personal information.

If you have any questions or concerns about the privacy of your account information, please contact us at (610) 429-1600.
